

Members Code of Conduct

u3a members are expected to conduct themselves within the movements “guiding principles”.

They are also expected to treat each other with dignity and respect.

The member Code of Conduct clarifies the standard of behaviour expected as a member of a u3a.

- Members are expected to know, follow and promote the principles of the u3a Movement at every opportunity.
- Members must always act in the best interests of Balsall Common u3a and the u3a Movement, strive to uphold its reputation and never do anything which could bring Balsall Common u3a or the u3a Movement into disrepute or expose it to undue risk.
- Members are expected to use Balsall Common u3a’s resources responsibly and only to further its stated charitable objects/purposes.
- Members are expected to reflect the current organisational policy of Balsall Common u3a, regardless of whether it conflicts with their personal views.
- Members are expected to abide by Balsall Common u3a’s procedures and practices.
- Members are expected to treat each other with dignity and respect at all times. Sexist, racist, homophobic, transphobic or otherwise offensive and inflammatory remarks and behaviour are not acceptable. These constitute harassment and have no place in Balsall Common u3a

Revised November 2022

Reviewed April 2023